

RI International's Recovery Crisis Respite Program (RCRP) is an innovative, new crisis option serving individuals and families facing behavioral health challenges in Maricopa County, and was created in partnership with Mercy Maricopa Integrated Care. With a 10-bed capacity, the RCRP located in Peoria, Arizona, provides counseling, peer support and short-term residential assistance, for those referred by a primary provider. The RCRP helps those experiencing psychiatric symptoms avoid potential losses; such as jobs, income and family/social support, and provides an empowering alternative to psychiatric hospitalization or incarceration.

Individualized Care

The RCRP works with participants to perform a behavioral assessment and develop an individualized service plan. Participants play an important role in their own recovery, encouraged by a team that believes that each person is capable of positive change and growth, and can recover from behavioral health concerns; achieving a life of meaning and purpose.

The RCRP serves those

- at least 18-years of age
- making a voluntary request for treatment
- able to safely self-administer medications
- experiencing psychiatric, emotional, substance abuse and/or co-occurring challenges

For referrals please dial our 24-hour line at 602.636.4380, and we will support you through the process.
